THE CURIOUS QUAKER

Succeeds in Astonishing the Pan-Americans and Their Wives.

AN ENTIRE LACK OF COURTESY

Marks the Public Reception Given by the Union League Club.

MANAGER CURTIS FORCED TO PROTEST

Features of an Affair Which Was Decidedly Remarkable,

The reception given to the Pan-American delegates and their wives by the Union League Club, of Philadelphia, was peculiar in more respects than one. The distinguished visitors were treated as museum curiosities and gazed at as an equal number of wild Indians might have been. All rules of etiquette seem to have been forgotten.

PHILADELPHIA, November 12. -Throughout the long trip just ending the people of the United States have everywhere demonstrated a lively interest in the Spanish-American delegates, and among the street throngs there have frequently been over-curious ones, who have, however, been ignored by the visitors. They have accepted all situations with dignity and at times with considerable forbearance.

It had, however, been reserved for Philadelphia to place the foreign guests in rows passed by with critical comments on the personal appearance or attire of the visitors.

The Union League Club had invited the and so keep them standing while crowds The Union League Club had invited the delegates to a reception at 9 o'clock last night, and W. E. Curtis, representing the State Department, was asked to attend at 8:30 p'clock. He did so, accompanied by his wife. The wife was admitted, the husband was shut out on the streets.

A HUSBAND'S PLEA. "It you will not admit me at least permit my wife to rejoin me," urged Mr. Cur-

At 9 o'clock Mr. Curtis got in. Soon after the delegates, with their wives and daughters in full evening attire, began arriving. They were directed toward the basement of the clubhouse to lay aside wraps, but were detained there by the re-ception committee until all the attractions should have arrived. Then they were led to a large room above, where the entire party was ranged about two sides of the room in a semi-circular row.

Then hundreds of people were started on a tour of inspection, the guests being the subjects. The local ladies nearly, if not all, were bonnets, and seemed to have had no notion that the amenities of polite circles would be understood, much less observed by the Central and South Americans. Many evidently had expected to find the women was evidenced by frequent remarks as the crowd, every one of whom had come to the Union League Club by card of invitation, moved past the row of visitors four

SHE WAS SURPRISED. "Why these seem to be very ordinary-looking people," remarked one Phila-delphia woman, staring hard at the guests.

"Yes, madam, and they understand every word you utter," said one American member of the visiting party, who stood with the string of attractions. with the string of attractions.

Mr. Curtis at length went to Mayor Fitler and expostulated against the making of the party a show for idle comment and imperti nent staring. It was in vain.
"Our people have come here to see these folks; they expect to do so, and it must be,"

was the response of some one.
"This shall not be continued any longer," protested Mr. Curtis to Mayor Fitler soon be kept here on exhibition any longer, and if you do not break this up I shall feel it my duty to interpose the prior hospitality of the Govern from such indignity. I shall ask the party to leave and return to their hotel." This was effective, and without any breaking up for introductions, the visitors were led to a room where they were fed and, soon after, sent to their hotel.

The delegates, at 11 o'clock this morning.

were driven to and inspected a sugar re-finery, after which they spent an hour in the University of Pennsylvania, where lanch was served. At the lunch the party was joined by the ladies, who had previously been tendered an extremely pleasing reception by Mr. George W. Childs at the Ledger office. The balance of the day was devoted to a topy of Campa's ship wards and devoted to a tour of Cramp's ship yards and several iron industries.

The pleasant effect and the perfect safety with which ladies may use the liquid fruitlaxative, Syrup of Figs, under all conditions make it their favorite remedy. It is pleasing to the eye and to the taste, gentle, yet effectual in acting on the kidneys, liver and bowels.

Sacrifice Sale of Pinnes and Organs at 137 Federal St., Allegheny, Pa.

We must have room for the 100 Everett pinnes now coming in, and will close ou this week our entire stock of other makes of pianos, consisting of Weber, Chickering, Decker, Kranach & Bach, Shoemaker, Hallet & Davis, Knabe, Pease and others. They must get out of the way, and you can have them at first cost if you take them away this week. We also offer a large line of organs at prices from $15 to $100. The fact is that the wonderful success of our Everett piano has killed the sale of these goods, and we have no room for them.

Pan-Americans Have Returned to Washing ton Full of Praises for the Westinghous

WASHINGTON, D. C., November 12 .-The display of the Westinghouse Electric Company at Mechanical Hail, Pittsburg, must be a very extraordinary thing, because the Pan-American delegates, who saw it last week, and are now back again in this city, are still full of its praises. To-night I had the opportunity of being in the Willard Hotel when a number of the Southern delegates were assembled and there was little else I heard them talking about outside of the electrical display in Pittsburg. "Such a variety of unique electrical ap-pliances and wonderful machinery," said one of them, "as were exhibited in that display was a sight I shall remember for a display was a sight I shall remember for a long time and there is no doubt in my mind, that the Westinghouse Electric Company is one of the greatest concerns of its kind in the country. That Rotary engine, I believe represents the apex of mechanical inven-tions of to-day, illustrating one of the grandest conceptions of inventive ingenuity the world has ever seen. To think, that such a small machine is able to wield the force of 300 horse power, is truly wonderful. When Mr. Westinghouse brings that engine on the market I predict, that its success will create one of the greatest sensations in the mechanical world 'Then that 3,000 light alternating current dynamo, what a triumph of modern elec-trical inventions, and to think that it is able to generate a sufficient amount of electricity to light up a good-sized town. The same may be said of the smaller machines, how scenrate they were all in their work, the whole appearing to move like clock work. Just imagine a small electric motor operating a printing press successfully. That souvenir which was printed on that press

I shall never forget it while I live, and if ever a representative of that great firm should come to call on me in South America I will assure him of the most cordial wel-

All the other delegates in the crowd seemed to feel the same way on the subject, and in fact several of them thought that there might be a great justification in call-ing Pittsburg the "Electric City" as well as the "Gas City."

Do you read Kaufmanns' Daily Card of Reason? Of course, you do. Who doesn't? But, has it ever occurred to you why we call our daily announcements CARDS OF REASON? We fancy it has, and you know our object.

What simpler and more appropriate sign could we place at the head of our communications with the public? REASON is the proper term, without a doubt Newspaper space, as you all well know, like any other commodity, is for sale. The purchaser (the advertiser) can do with it as he sees fit.

And that's where the newspapers make a mistake. We think they should exercise a strict censorship in regard to all advertisements. The "paid matter" should be as truthful as the editorial utterance. However, since the business managers of the various papers, and not we, have the "say so," we must let it suffice by saying to the public: Beware!

Some other advertisers attempt to gain trade by appealing to popular prejudices, while others make the well known gullibility and credulity of many people their ways and means of seeking custom. However,

Our advertisements are the truthful reflections of our offerings. When you call to see us we place before you our goods and prices, and, unless you are certain of our superior abilities to serve you, we don't expect your patronage. We want your custom by deserving it.

We leave it to your REASON to decide, whether or not, it pays you to deal with us, and this is why we have baptized our daily announcements CARDS OF

Right now you can have an excellent example of how much it is to your interest to patronize us by looking through our various
